

THE MAZLOUMS: PRECIOUS ART

Claude and Robert Mazloum's creations are now on view at Gallery Modulart

A new kind of show has opened at Gallery Amateur: modern jewelry.

All of the jewelry created by Claude and Robert Mazloum has a history or background. Imaginative works of art in silver and gold, they range from rings to bracelets to tiny figurines. A stimulating variety is presented to the viewer: sincerity, appreciation of the object itself (especially in the pendentifs) and an absolute refusal to please by "pretentiousness". Some of the pieces are humorous and delicate. All of them are successful and in the best of taste. The young Mazloum brothers, seen smiling modestly at the opening, studied for years in Italy and are opening their own workshop in Beirut. Their quiet and profound appreciation for fine craftsmanship is consummately realized in their achieved work.
